Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

DUBLIN-CASTLE, September 29.

THIS Day arrived His Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Grace was received at his Landing by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices, and by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin. The Foot-Forces in Garriſon, with the Militia of the City, lined the Streets through which His Grace (attended by a Regiment of Horſe, the Battle Axe Guards, and the other Officers attending the State) proceeded, amidſt the Acclamations of a vaſt Concourſe of People, to the Caſtle: Upon which the Great Guns at the Barracks were fired, and anſwered by the Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon College Green; and His Grace received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, upon his ſafe Arrival in this Kingdom.

Newcaſtle, Octob. 5. We hear from Morpeth, that the late Rains have done great Damage thereabout, not only to the Corn, &c. but ſeveral Houſes have been much detrimented; and a large piece of the Mill-Dam at Morpeth Bridge was drove away by the Overflowing of the River Wanſpeck; the Foundation of Mr Cheater's new Houſe much damaged; and at the Warp-Mill, near the ſaid Place, the Water ran over the Top of the Door; Corn, Trees, Calves, Sheep, Hogs, &c. have been drove down the ſaid River in great Numbers. The oldeſt Perſon living can't remember the Water to have been ſo high before.

Our Letters from ſeveral Parts of Yorkſhire give very melancholy Accounts of the great Damage done to the Barley and Beans by the late Rain, inſomuch that in many Places they are not worth mowing.

On Saturday laſt two Sloops (occaſioned by a great Freſh in the River) broke from the Key ſide, and run down a Wherry loaden with ſeveral ſorts of Proviſions for a Ship at Shields; by which Accident moſt of the Loading was either loſt or damaged.

Paris, Octob. 10. All our Advices from Madrid confirm, that the Spaniſh Court is under great concern at the prodigious Preparations for War in England, particularly by Sea, and eſpecially the ſtrong Squadrons ſent to the Weſt-Indies. It looks as tho' the Engliſh were reſolved to take Revenge in the ſame Parts of the World where they have receiv'd theg reateſt Injuries; and it muſt be confeſſed, that if they are hearty according to the Meaſures they have taken, they may do the Spaniards a great deal of Miſchief in thoſe diſtant Parts, before they can meet with any Interruption: For the Engliſh, contrary to their former Policy, kept their Deſigns ſecret, till they had block'd up the chief Ports of Spain, with their Men of War in them, and then ſent their Squadrons to the Weſt-Indies, from whence we ſoon expect to hear News that will be ſhocking to the Catholick King, and all ſuch as have the Intereſt of Spain at Heart.

Octob. 17. Mr. Bergen, the King of Sweden's Secretary of State, arrived here the 12th Inſtant from Stockholm.

The 11th Inſtant the Infanta was delivered into the Hands of the Spaniards in the Iſland of Pheaſants on the Frontiers.

LONDON, Octob. 9. His Majeſty has been pleas'd to appoint the Right Hon. the Earl of Pomfret, to be Governor of the Iſland of Guernſey, in the room of the late Marqueſs de Montandre.

'Tis reported that the Spaniſh Court has ſent proper Officers to Burgos to deliver the Effects brought by the Aſſogues to the reſpective Proprietors, upon an Indulto of 12 per Cent.

'Tis aſſur'd that a very conſiderable Draft will be made out of the Foot Guards, to be ſent to Gibraltar ſoon after Chriſtmas.

Laſt Week a ſecond Trial was made of Col. Fuller's new-invented Boat, at Paris Garden Stairs, by letting it down artificially from a Lighter into the River at high Water, and ſinking it; notwithſtanding which, without any Aid, it would riſe of itſelf, and diſcharge its Water. His Royal Highneſs the Prince, and many of the Nobility, were preſent at the Experiment, and expreſſed a great Satisfaction therein.

LONDON, Octob. 13. They write from Cadiz, That the Captain of a French Ship lately arrived there, reports, That he met with an Engliſh Squadron off the Canary Iſlands, conſiſting of eight or nine Men of War, and they ſeemed to ſteer towards the Weſt-Indies.

From Madrid we hear, That the Court has received Advice, that a Privateer of Valentia has lately carried into that Port an Engliſh Ship, richly laden, bound from Smyrna: They alſo give out, that another Spaniſh Privateer of 16 Guns, has taken an Engliſh Ship of 18 Guns, after a ſmart Engagement; and that the Number of Veſſels they have taken from the Engliſh, amounts to 14, including theſe two. Theſe Prizes, together together with the Confiſcations, they aſſure us, amount to upwards of 3,000,000 of Crowns; and they reckon that the Seizures which are to be made in the Weſt-Indies, as ſoon as the King of Spain's Decree arrives there, will amount much higher. They add, that the Court has ſent Inſtructions to the Governor of the Havanna, relating to the Courſe which the Ships from the Bay of Honduras are to ſteer.

Letters from Liſbon ſay, That our Envoy there demanded Permiſſion for Admiral Haddock's Squadron to winter in that Port; but that his Portugueze Majeſty could not conſent to it, on account of his Reſolution to lie Neuter in this Diſpute between Great-Britain and Spain; and that in conſequence of that Reſolution, he has forbid his Subjects to buy any Spaniſh Prizes of the Engliſh.

Letters from Naples, by the Way of Leghorn, bring Advice, That the King of Spain has demanded a Body of Troops of his Sicilian Majeſty; and that the latter has ordered ſeveral Regiments to march towards Naples, where they are to embark for Barcelona.

According to our Advices from Copenhagen, all the neceſſary Preparations are making all over his Daniſh Majeſty's Dominions, in order to repel any Attempts that may be made to diſturb the Tranquility of the North.

Octob. 15. Some Letters from Stockholm adviſe, That upon the Arrival there of the News of Felt-Marſhal Munich's having beaten the Turks and taken Choczim, it was conſidered whether tranſporting Troops to Finland ſhould be foreborn; but the Reſult was, that it ſhould go on, leſt that Circumſtance ſhould be thought to have given a Turn to Affairs.

NEW-YORK, Jan. 28.

On Thurſday laſt arrived here Capt. Tingley, by whom we have the following Advice.

FREDERICA in Georgia, the 20th Dec. 1739.

THE Spaniards begun Hoſtilities upon the Province, by killing Two of his Majeſty's Subjects on the Iſland Amelia; they were drove off and made a ſecond Attempt, when General Oglethorp went down, and they retired to their Boats before he could overtake them.

Hearing that they were preparing in St. John's River, which divides Florida from Georgia, to make farther Ravages, he concerted with Capt. Warren, Commander of his Majeſty's Ships on this Station, who then lay with the Squirrel Man of War, in this Port, that whilſt he cruized off of St. Auguſtine, the General would drive the Spaniſh Boats or Launches out of the River St. John's. The General being joined by Hilleſpelli (Chief War-Captain to the late Toma Chi Chi, and who was in England with him) with Phance Mico, King of the Chickeſaws, the Uchees, and the King of the Savana Indians, and ſome of their Warriours, and by a Party of the People of Georgia; he ſet out with 14 Boats, taking with him a Detachment of the regular Troops from the Garriſons on St. Simons and St. Andrews, under the Command of the Captains Heron, Mackay, and Deſbriſay, Lieutenants Demeri, and Horton, Enſigns Mace, Lemon, Hogan, Sutherland, Cadogan, and Steuart. He landed on the Spaniſh Florida on the 19th Inſtant, at a Place called the Spaniſh Look-out; within two Miles of which they had a Horſe-Guard, who immediately retired, abandoned the Houſe, and two Boats. He inſtantly reimbarked, and went up the River St. John's 6 Miles, where the Spaniards had another Guard-Houſe, which they alſo abandoned: He returned again to the Look-out, near the Sea, landed and marched towards Auguſtine along the Sea-beach; the Indians beat the Country for a Mile or two before the Troops, the Highland Rangers were upon the Right, the People of Georgia upon the Left, and the Regular in the Center. On the 13th about Noon the Chickeſaw Indians, who were advanced two Miles before the Party, gave Notice that they ſaw a Body of Spaniards appear, and in a few Minutes Time our Men from the Sand Hills diſcovered the Enemy, who juſt then came round a Point about three Miles Diſtance, which had before hid them from Sight, they were in three Bodies; thoſe upon the Right were Horſe, and what the other Bodies were we could not then diſtinguiſh: Ours haſtned their March, and the General ordered the Indians to ſkirmiſh, and they run forward with great Fury. The two Bodies on the Enemy's Left, who proved to be Spaniſh Indians and Negroes, immediately retired with Precipitation; the Body of Horſe wheeled, they at firſt retired ſlowly, but as the Chickeſaw Indians came nearer them, they galloped towards Auguſtine, and ſome of the Indians purſued them about Eight Miles. A ſmall Body of ours advanced about a Mile and a half, and took Poſſeſſion of a Guard-Houſe, which the Spaniards had abandoned. Towards Evening the Indians returned from the Purſuit, loaded with Beef, having met with a Herd of Spaniſh Cattle. That Night we encamped among the Sand Hills, having the Sea-beach on our Front, a Pond of freſh Water, and beyond that, a Plain of about two Miles over, clear of Woods, and only cover'd with low Myrtles and Palmettoes, in our Rear; upon our Right, a Brook of Water; on the Left, the Ridge of the Sand Hills continued. By Day-break the General ſent off the Indians in three Bodies, the Uchees, the Creeks, and the Chickeſaws, to drive the Country, which they did, as far as a Fort, which the Spaniards have within a few Miles of Auguſtine, into which the Indians and Negroes retired, as the Spaniſh Horſe did to the Town of Auguſtine. Hilleſpelli, and the Creeks went beyond the Fort, and overtook a Negroe, and would have given him Quarter, which he refuſed, and defending himſelf ſtoutly, was killed. The Indians returned at Night, extreamly fatigued. The General drew out the Party upon the Sea-Sands, and fired ſeveral Vollies in Platoons, that the Spaniards might know where we were, if they had any Inclination to viſit us.

On the 14th the General marched back to the Boats, ſending out Parties, who brought in Beef, &c. there being great Quantities of Spaniſh Cattle: He encamped that Night at Florida at the Look-out, waiting to ſee if the Spaniards would come out of their Garriſons to defend the Country: He ſent up Lieut. Dunbar, with the Chickeſaws, in two Boats, and ſome of the regular Troops, to ſearch the River St. John upwards, for where the Spaniards had hid their Boats, and to drive in their other Guards upon that River. On the 18th the General and the Party returned, without the Loſs of a Man; and ſeveral who went out weak after Sickneſs, returned in Health; notwithſtanding that they were Thirteen Days without Houſe, Tent, or any other Cover, and the Five firſt Days without Fire, to prevent Alarming the Enemy.
